What Else You Should Know

- A link to another account or a line of credit is a less expensive option than an overdraft.
- A single larger overdraft will result in just one fee, as opposed to multiple smaller overdrafts.
- Even if you have overdraft protection, Overdraft Privilege is still available as secondary coverage if the other protection source is exhausted.
- Good account management is the best way to avoid overdrafts. Use our mobile service, MyMcCoy Mobiliti, our online account access service, MyMcCoy, our telephone accounts service, Toni the Teller, or our email alert system, E-Alerts, to keep track of your balance.
- The $30 Overdraft (ODP) Fee is lower than the fee you would be charged if a check was returned as unpaid. If multiple items overdraw your account on the same day, each item would be assessed a $30 Overdraft (ODP) Fee or a $30 NSF Return Fee. All fees and charges will be included as part of the Overdraft Privilege limit amount. Your account may become overdrawn in excess of the Overdraft Privilege limit amount as a result of a fee.

- There is a limit of $240 per day we will charge for Overdraft (ODP) fees.
- Normally we post transactions as follows:
 - Electronic credits and debits are posted in the morning before the open of business.
 - ATM transactions, PIN approved debit card purchases, transactions posted by a branch office or the call center, MyMcCoy online transactions and Toni the Teller phone transactions are posted in real time as they occur throughout the day.
 - Signature approved debit card transactions are posted throughout the day as they are received from the merchant.
 - Incoming wires are deposited to your account throughout the day as we receive them. Outgoing wires are posted to your account when sent.
 - Checks issued by you are posted to your account between 3:00pm and 5:00pm.
- Although under payment system rules, McCoy FCU may be obligated to pay some unauthorized debit card transactions, McCoy FCU will not authorize debit card or ATM transactions unless there are available funds (including Overdraft Coverage Options) to cover the transactions and any fee(s).
- Giving us your consent to pay every day debit card and ATM overdrafts may result in you incurring Overdraft (ODP) Fees for transactions that we would otherwise be required to pay without assessing an Overdraft (ODP) Fee. However, this allows us to authorize transactions up to the amount of your Overdraft Privilege limit and may help you avoid overdrafts in excess of your available funds that could result in restriction of your debit card.
- Except as described in this letter, McCoy FCU will not pay items if your account does not contain available funds (including the Overdraft Privilege limit) to cover the item(s) and the amount of any fee(s).
- We may restrict your debit card use if you incur overdrafts in excess of the available funds in your account, including any Overdraft Privilege limit.
- McCoy FCU will place a hold on your account for any authorized debit card transaction until the transaction settles (usually within two business days) or as permitted by payment system rules. In some cases, the hold may exceed the amount of the transaction.
- Overdraft Privilege limits for accounts opened at least 30 days in good standing are as follows:
 - Classic Checking - $750
 - Easy Checking (consumer and business) - $750
 - Fresh Start Checking - $300
 - Total Business Checking and Basic Business Checking- $750
- Overdraft Privilege is not a line of credit; it is a discretionary overdraft service that can be withdrawn at any time without prior notice.
- Overdraft Privilege may be discontinued if you default on any loan or other obligation to us, your account becomes subject to any legal or administrative order or levy, or if you fail to maintain your account in good standing by not bringing your account to a positive balance within thirty-two (32) days for a minimum of one business day.
- Depositor and each Authorized Signatory will continue to be liable, jointly and severally, for all overdraft and fee amounts, as described in the Deposit Account and Disclosure Agreement. The total (negative) balance, including all fees and charges, is due and payable upon demand.
